Minister Bennett to Deliver Canadian Bioeconomy Conference Keynote

VANCOUVER, BC — The Canadian Renewable Fuels Association (CRFA) is proud to announce that the Honourable Bill Bennett, British Columbia Minister of Energy and Mines and Minister Responsible for Core Review, will deliver the Canadian Bioeconomy Conference keynote address on December 1 at the Sheraton Vancouver Wall Centre.

The Canadian Bioeconomy Conference brings together North America's industry leaders, policy makers, elected officials and true innovators across the bioeconomy. The three day agenda features an extensive list of sessions and numerous speakers and panelists that are focused on shaping the future of Canada's biofuels industry and bioeconomy.

"The roster of speakers at the Canadian Bioeconomy Conference is unparalleled in our industry," said Jim Grey, CRFA Chair. "We're delighted that Minister Bennett will contribute to the event by addressing our delegates."
